The portraits appearing in this volume are those of the Cawdor Cup winners of 1905, Mr. Matthew Marshall's Hiawatha Godolphin (12,602), and Mr. Wm. Park's Rosadora (Vol. XXVII., p. 214). The latter was exported to Canada by Mr. W. Bryce, Arcola, Ass., in August, 1905, almost immediately after she had won the highest trophy open to a female Clydesdale. It is also a melancholy fact that her esteemed owner, Mr. Wm. Park, Brunstane, Portobello, died on 3rd January, 1906. He was a member of Council, whose fellowship was much valued by his brother Councilmen. Rosadora is the first Cawdor Cup winner of either sex which has been exported.
